ScaleWears.com

The company for all of your custom clothing solutions

Our Company Philosophy:

Scale Wear Design Co. is dedicated to the development of new and novel proprietary designs for performance clothing. Scale Wear prides itself in offering top quality clothing at competitive prices so you can offer quality custom made clothing lines to your retailers and consumers at a great price.

We offer fully custom made clothing available at dealer prices! Advertise your business and let your customers wear your brand! Scale Wear can make about any clothing type you would like. Our clothing combines both comfort and style for active lifestyles. With our dye-sublimation technology, our performance clothing has no feel, no cracking, no ink fading and long lasting durability.

Scale Wear uses better manufacturing processes, better sewing techniques and thread, the finest Italian sublimation inks and the best quality fabrics we can source to make the highest quality clothing offered in the USA. Wearing performance clothing is not just for style and comfort but there are multiple benefits. Sun protection would be the #1 reason. Not only will Scale Wear clothing keep you protected from the sun with its 40 to 50+ UPF ratings but it is also light weight, refreshing and cool to wear. Our fabrics are excellent at protecting you from bugs, are stain resistant, will help wick moisture away destroying bacteria and subsequently control odors. Along with these benefits, we strive to keep our costs down, our clothing is not overpriced so you can offer the clothing to your retailers and consumers at a competitive price and compete against top tier brands.

Our Vision:

Scale Wear has built a great company through exceptional people, hard work, value driven products and great service. Since our inception, our goal has been to raise the standards of quality and performance, dependability and overall value in the active lifestyle clothing industry. We also promise to provide exceptional service, honesty and creative design solutions to all of our clients. Ultimately our goal is to provide products and services that exceed expectations and raise the standard of service to the highest level.
